

Paths of Glory

Stanley Kubrick's searing World War I drama is one of the most powerful war films of all time.

By 1917, after three years of senseless carnage, the common French poilus were on the brink of mutiny.

When it happened in Kirk Douglas's own unit, he went from being their commander to their impassioned public defender.

ALPL historian Mark DePue introduces the film, the companion piece to his presentation on America's entry into WW I.

Tuesday, April 11, 1:00 p.m.

Multi-Purpose Room

Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library

To reserve a seat for this free event visit www.presidentlincoln.illinois.gov or call 217-558-8934.